

January, 2011

Dear Fellow Lectors:

Your new schedule covering the period from January 8 through March 27 is enclosed. The Easter sign-up sheet will be in the sacristy after the end of March. If you need any permanent adjustments, please let me know three weeks before the next schedule is prepared (before March 15). I try to accommodate your schedules but if you know, and let me know in advance, it makes the preparation easier.

Our teaching seminarian, Tim Lawrence will be reading at the different Masses during this schedule. I have him plugged in, but don't have his exact dates, so it may be necessary to do a bit of juggling, but it will work. Hugh Guscetti is taking a brief sabbatical this period, but should return with the next schedule. Jill Reisweig will be also absent temporarily. Finally, Kevin Cure has been removed from the schedule. He may rejoin at a later date. We now normally have 8 readers at 5:00 p.m., 6 readers at 7:30, 7 at 9:00 and 7 at 11:00a.m.

The new system for coordinating Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist and Lectors is still not in operation and both schedules are running concurrently. If you serve in both ministries, please check your schedule for conflicts. If you have been scheduled for both EME and reading on the same day, please arrange for a sub for one ministry.

We will host a morning of recollection for Lectors on Saturday, April 2. Our speaker will be Father John Paul Erickson, Director of Worship for the Archdiocese, who many of you may remember as we were his teaching parish. Please let me know if you can help me in this project. We will be inviting neighboring parishes and serving a light breakfast.

God bless you and keep you.
